

Part 7 of the Music Industry Reports series, check the beginning of the book to see how to get them all for free. This report is approximately 3000+ words long. Getting fans involved in your music career is essential. While it was once possible to appear "untouchable" and not communicate with fans bar seeing them at live shows, this is no longer the case. With the internet making it easier to connect with sociable musicians, if you as an independent artist don't embrace fans on a day to day basis, you're going to lose fans out to musician who do. Learn some ways to do that in this guide.
