

One-Act Comedy; Approx. 10 min; 2M: Bert and Kevin bolstered their courage by scheduling their vasectomies on the same morning. As they wait in the doctors office, they discover a few things about each other they might not have expected. This short play is a hit with one-act play festivals wherever it plays, it will have your audiences laughing, squirming in their seats and sympathizing with the characters as they talk about probably one of the few subjects that actually make men squeamish. This short piece is a good in-between-er to lighten the mood or bring in laughter in a drama-heavy program. Awarded a full production by the 2001 Northwest Connecticut One-Act Play Festival at the Warners Nancy Marine Studio Theatre, Torrington, Connecticut.
