

A Silent Cry takes you on a long journey of how one woman went from tragedy to triumph. Natasha Gooch road to destiny was a poignant tale following the adversity, trials and tribulations that she had to endure at a young age. By the age of twenty-one, Natasha had been molested, experienced the loss of both parents and a grandmother, became addicted to relations with men, dropped out of school, got herself connected with a young man who she thought loved her while she believed in her heart that he was a gift sent by God designed just for her. Natasha eventually allowed this young man to move her away from family and out of the state at the tender age of seventeen. Within a matter of time, he physically and emotionally abused her. With all the odds stacked against her--the things she went through had set her up to fail and to become another statistic, but by the grace of God, her life did not turn out that way. What the enemy thought was meant for bad, God turned it around for the good. Prayer, fasting, and worship were the three factors in Natashas life that helped through her hardships. She used all the negative things she went through in her life to catapult her into living a successful and victorious life. Natasha is a ambassador of the Lord carrying a message of hope, redemption, and transparency. She hopes to serve as an inspiration to those who may read this book. To whoever may need words of encouragement during difficult times? With God all things are possible, and nothing is too hard to achieve.
