

If you've ever wondered if God really exists, then this book will help. Without using technical jargon Beverly Bekker explains how the fingerprints of God can easily be found all over the earth you walk on, the cells of your body or in the vast universe. Having established that what you were taught in Sunday school is true without a doubt, you may then still wonder what God is like. Beverly explains how our heavenly Father has shown us clearly what He is like, in both the extravagant design revealed in the things that he has made and in His son Jesus Christ. In so doing God reveals how he feels about you and me. This book invites you to commit your mind and heart wholeheartedly, without reservation, to a loving God who rules with power and compassion, who knows you intimately, and who wants your allegiance and who deserves your worship. Along the way Beverly shares some personal anecdotes about love, family, friends and inspiring movies. Believe. Hope. Live. provides the word of God in simple explainable terms on one of the most foundational topics of Christianity. It is a book that cuts through spiritual jargon to get to the heart of the matter. Much like sitting down and chatting with a good friend over a cup of coffee, this book allows personable discussion without passing judgements or condemnation to those who have struggled to live a life of faith. A thought-provoking read by a humble author. Roma Waterman, Australian Singer/Songwriter, Author of The God Artist. Bev brings us a wonderfully practical and personal view on her own journey to find faith. It has made me laugh, made me cry and most importantly, inspired me to believe. No matter what the circumstance. Laurel McCulloch You have in your hands a book written by my friend, Bev Bekker, who does a gentle, wonderful job of drawing you from the territory of fuzzy hope and airy-fairy dreams into the unshakeable certainty of real biblical faith. I hope you enjoy the journey. I did. John Gardiner, editor Prepare The Way, previously editor of JOY magazine.
