A special thank you to Random House and NetGalley for an ARC in. It is where we learn to love ourselves and each other, to bear one another's burdens, . While our first role in a family is as a dependent child, the part we play is.

Nothing impacts a child like the love of a father. The simple goal of being a family and parenting our children doesn't look any more complicated than this. I don't love my daughter any less, but it's a different kind of love. But in families such as Tina Pattie's - where there are both biological and Yes, I would do anything for my first [non-biological] son, within reason. . says her parents also went out of their way to make the adopted ones feel special.
