

From suicide to haunted houses to the Montana Bigfoot Murder, the dark ghosts of the past intrude on the troubled present. As a massive hurricane rattles the historic city of Savannah, a couple on a blind date reopen old wounds, revisit past sins and learn to fall in love. It's late summer in Savannah, Georgia, the most haunted city in North America, and Bertie Gray is having the day from Hell. A young girl is missing and might be dead, a massive category four hurricane is just minutes away from the city and Bertie's crazy aunt Clara just set her up on a blind date with an unemployed college student named Junior. Will the dark secrets of the Gray family bring Bertie and Junior together or will they destroy them before the night is over? Haint Blue is the 2008 Grand Prize Winner of the Chattanooga Theatre Centres Festival of New Plays and ran for three weeks on the CTCs Circle Stage.
