

Papers and Writing in College, is Chapter 8 of The Elements of Academic Success, which is 232 pages of ACADEMIC DYNAMITE. It covers everything a student will face, academically, in college. The Elements of Academic Success is not theory. The contents are proven beyond the shadow of a doubt. The author was a top student at one of the finest liberal arts colleges in America, the College of Charleston (South Carolina), founded in 1770; and he graduated magna cum laude, with History Departmental Honors, and the highest award - the Outstanding Student Award - for the History Department in 2000. He also won the Rebecca Motte American History Award the year before. NOT BEING EINSTEIN, the author had to develop powerful techniques for learning material and retaining it, and all of his superior techniques are in this book. He gives you solid examples and shows you how to be super organized, take excellent notes, study effectively, do great research, WRITE OUTSTANDING PAPERS (the author made As on most of his!), do exceptional presentations, but perhaps, most importantly, PREPARE FOR TESTS IN A HIGHLY EFFECTIVE WAY THAT GUARANTEES As ALMOST EVERY TIME. One's attitude is the key, and this book will give a student an unbeatable positive attitude and a burning desire to excel. The Elements of Academic Success is inspired by Strunk and Whites classic, The Elements of Style, and formatted the same way so it is easy to use! There are 10 chapters and 351 bold topic sentences, each followed by one-to-several paragraphs of detail. You can go through the bold topic sentences fast, and when you see something you like, the Kindle allows you to highlight it or add a note. You can review your list of highlights and notes for the entire book at any time and go straight to any one. Also, a complete index of all 351 bold topic sentences can be seen in the Kindles Document Navigation View. The Elements of Academic Success is a GREAT RESOURCE FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS as well as college students. It will help them immediately with studying, tests and papers, and it will show them what college is like so they can go into it prepared. AUTHORS NOTE: This book is formatted BEAUTIFULLY for the Kindle. The 10% sample that you see here when you click the front cover, shows the numbered bold topic sentences to be larger than they actually are in the book. The book is GORGEIOUS and typeset to perfection.
