

This is a leadership book providing a three-step framework to help transform businesses into innovative enterprises. Discover how to build an innovative organization that thrives on the ideas, creative energy and the innovation of the people that work within those organizations. Now more than ever, successful organizations and businesses must provide unequalled service, deliver an exceptional product or service and continuously makes innovative changes and improvements. This will only happen if they breathe, dream and allow innovation at all levels of the organization. Preoccupation with gimmicks, short-term thinking, restrictive rules and regulations will generate more Going Out of Business signs than anything else. Innovation comes from a workforce empowered by both their ideas and their ability to contribute to the enterprise. Creating this innovative environment is our greatest challenge of the future. The leader must create an environment supporting and nurturing innovation. Creativity and innovation begins with the leader or business manager. In today's rapidly changing world, the manager must be more like a coach than a boss -- a collaborator instead of a manipulator.
